I , have read the information explaining the Given Names Surname

study entitled “Analysis of stress-induced levels of stress hormones in blood and saliva of 18 year-old members of the Raine Study”.

I have understood the information given to me. Any questions I have asked, except with regard to the type of challenge used in the study, have been answered to my satisfaction.

I understand that I may withdraw from the study at any stage without reason and without prejudice. Withdrawal from this study at 18 years of age will not affect the data collection and storage of my participation in previous Raine Cohort Study Follow-Ups. It will also not preclude further participation in future Raine Cohort Study Follow Ups.

I agree that information and data collected in previous Raine Study Follow Ups can be accessed for longitudinal data analysis in the Raine Study.

I also agree that research data gathered from the results of this study may be published, provided that names are not used.
